Safety in the Community

Presented by: Toronto Police Service

This workshop will feature a presenter from the Toronto Police, and will address the safety of community members who have a disability. Topics include: police training, rights, vulnerable persons registration, and what to do in emergency situations.

Some questions from families that will be discussed:

- Do you have advice for identifying or finding children with invisible disabilities? And, are there techniques that the police use to help a scared child communicate?
- What are a person's rights if they do not intentionally mean to harm anyone?
- What is involved in standardized police training when it comes to people with disabilities?
